The image shows a laptop screen displaying the Strategic Imaging Customer Portal. The browser address bar shows the URL <https://www.strategic-imaging.com/customer>. The page header includes the Strategic Imaging logo (a green 'Si' in a circle with 'strategicimaging' and 'EMILSONITE OWNED' below it), the text 'A Division of The VGM Group', and contact information 'Call Us! (888) 852-3731' along with social media icons for LinkedIn and Facebook. A green 'Customer Login' button is in the top right. A dark blue navigation bar contains links for 'About SI', 'Production Services', 'Custom Branding', 'Our Work', 'Send A File', 'Contact Us', and 'OTS'. The main content area features a login form on the left, highlighted with a yellow border. The form has two input fields: 'Email Address' and 'Password', a green link for 'Forgot Password?', and a 'Login' button. Below the form is a note: 'PLEASE NOTE: If you don't have an account, please contact your customer service representative.' To the right of the form is a section titled 'What is the Customer Portal?' with a paragraph: 'Strategic Imaging is updating our file transfer procedures as well as incorporating a digital, on-line, catalog perfect for your reorder projects.' Below this is a 'File Transfer Tutorial' button and an illustration of a woman lying on a cloud with a laptop. Further down is a section for 'Online Catalog' with the text: 'Online Catalog is an added-value-service for our customers to conveniently order pre-approved projects online. Stay organized by'. At the bottom of the screen, a 'Web to Print Demo' banner is visible, and the Windows taskbar shows the time as 10:31 AM.
